

FOR THE TALL GIRL

Although you do not see very many white blouses worn without coats, yet, their being uncommon, makes them very stylish on the tall girl. The one shown today is of red moire with a darker red taffeta belt and a white net bodice. This blouse also has the short sleeves which are rather uncommon this year. However, as it grows warmer, one may look for the annual baring of the summer girl's arms.

THE DIETZ CASE

A third man, whose arrest may clear Mrs. Augusta Dietz and George Nurnberg, is being sought by the police in connection with the murder of George Dietz, wealthy ladies' tailor.

... man is said to have also been a friend of the widow. It is believed that it was he who bought the hammer. The police have been tipped off that the instrument of death was purchased in Waukegan. Detectives were sent there this morning.

Mrs. Dietz and Nurnberg were arraigned and formally charged with murder before Judge Goodnow in the business avenue police court. They were released on $10,000 bonds.

Coroner Hoffman, who is pushing the case, is said to have received information that he is on the wrong track in ordering the arrest of the widow and her confessed lover.

THREE HELD AS ROBBERS

After a thrilling chase through several west side streets, three young men, accused of having beaten and robbed Edward O'Hara, an employee of the Geo. W. Jackson Company, were caught early this morning at the Halsted street station of the Metropolitan road. Then men fled after O'Hara screams. Each was caught separately.

At the Desplaines street station, where they were booked on charges of assault and robbery, they gave their names as: Wm. Maloney, 17, 4949 Austin av.; Joseph Schiller, 19, 1840 W. 18th place; Peter Smith, 19, 1523 W. 18th place.

Population of New York now 5,332,000.
